

SECRET

Approved For Release 2005/01/05 : CIA-RDP68B00255R000300100001-8

A. COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS

1. As of April 14, 1962 the following formal requirements on Cuba and on Sovbloc activities with respect to Cuba were levied on the Department:

CIA: C-CI2-75,009 Cuban Propaganda in the Dominican Republic,
March 21, 1962

25X1

DIA: Railway Transportation, Construction Materials Industry,
Topography, Urban Areas, Transportation, Telecommunications,
Ground Forces, Medical Facilities, Intelligence and Security
Agencies, March 1962

ACSI: Security and Intelligence Organizations - Subversion,
September 1961

CIA and Services: Sino-Soviet Bloc Arms Shipments to Cuba, December 1960

Beyond these formal requirements, the Department of State, including its intelligence component, had a continuing requirement, in order to implement its policy responsibilities, to obtain all pertinent intelligence information concerning Cuban developments. Under the terms of NSCID No. 2, the Department had a basic requirement to acquire, collect, analyze, and disseminate sociological, scientific and technical information concerning Cuba.

Approved For Release 2005/01/05 : CIA-RDP68B00255R000300100001-8

SA-1

x1

Approved For Release 2005/01/05 : CIA-RDP68B00255R000300100001-8

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2005/01/05 : CIA-RDP68B00255R000300100001-8